

CLINE ISSUES ADDITIONAL BONDS UNDER ITS FINANCIAL RESTRUCTURING

Toronto, Ontario, Canada, April 11, 2013. Cline Mining Corporation ("Cline" or the "Company") (TSX:CMK) announced today that, in accordance with the terms of the Company's financial restructuring announced on December 27, 2012 (the "Marret Plan"), certain investment funds advised by Marret Asset Management Inc. purchased US$2,500,000 of 10% secured bonds (the "Bonds") which have the same terms as the Company's other outstanding bonds.

The Company expects to use the US$2,500,000 proceeds from the Bonds for general corporate purposes, costs related to implementing the Marret Plan and for care and maintenance of its New Elk mine in Trinidad, Colorado. For the other principal terms of the Bonds and the Marret Plan, reference should be made to the Company's press release dated December 27, 2012.

About Cline

Cline is focused on the exploration and development of metallurgical steel making coals in Canada and the U.S., and on its iron ore property in Madagascar and its Cline Lake gold property in northern Ontario, Canada.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements (including "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation and "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) relating to, among other things, the operations of the Company, the environment in which it operates and the Company's future financial and operating performance. Generally, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might" or "will be taken", "occur" or "be achieved". Such statements are based on assumptions, estimates, forecasts and projections made in light of the trends, conditions and expected developments that are considered to be relevant and reasonable in the circumstances at the date that such statements are made. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and such information is inherently subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that are difficult to predict and may be beyond the control of the Company. A number of factors and assumptions may cause actual results, level of activity, performance or outcomes of the Company to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements including, without limitation, the future price of coal, industry market trends and predictions, the estimation of mineral reserves and resources, capital, operating and exploration expenditures, costs and timing of future exploration, requirements for additional capital, government regulation of mining operations, environmental risks, reclamation expenses, title disputes or claims, limitations of insurance coverage and regulatory matters and other risks set forth in other public filings of the Company. There can be no guarantee the Company will complete the Marret Plan. Consequently, undue reliance should not be placed on such forward-looking statements. In addition, all forward-looking statements in this press release are given as of the date hereof. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, save and except as may be required by applicable securities laws.
